THE OPPORTUNITY

In the real estate world, location is the key to value. For us on the Tweed Coast, it should come as no surprise that the most valuable locations are those closest to the ocean. Whether it is referenced in "distance" or "views" it is generally the foundation for determining a property's value.

Practically designed and extremely versatile, this is a home that will suit a myriad of buyers, located one of the region's most prestigious beachside addresses. Whether you're looking to buy a holiday home, an investment property, downsize or are entering the property market for the first time, this is an outstanding opportunity to put your stamp on a property with uncapped potential.

The opportunity is a 3 bedroom townhouse, positioned as
